ÊTRE SOLEIL being the sun

A child walks through his city and notices, without knowing why, that his environment softens when he touches him.

His secret? "Being the sun", even when it rains! His daily life becomes re-enchanted through simple things: playing with plants, building a cabin, going to the park with his friends...

A feel-good book!

UNE OASIS

oasis

A picture book that poetically addresses the importance of nature in urban spaces!

As a scorching sun hovers over the city, a sparrow wakes up sweating. Going in search of his friends, he sets out to find a cool spot: a planter, a lawn, a vegetable garden... How can you find a pleasant island in this heat?

Fuyant l'agitation vers une rue moins passante,
le moineau découvre, entre deux immeubles,
un joli jardin ombragé. Aurait-il trouvé son havre de paix pour la journée ?

L'odeur des tomates et de la menthe poivrée chatouille son bec.

Ce qui le surprend d'abord,
c'est la fraîcheur.

LE CHAT QUI VOULAIT VOIR LES ÉTOILES the cat who wanted to see the stars

A fable on the theme of light pollution in cities!

A young cat has a big dream: to see the stars. Looking for them, it wanders on the roofs and meets other animals which it associates with its quest. But how can we admire the stars, when they are eclipsed by the abundance of city lights?

- An album that addresses the theme of light pollution with poetry.

LA NUIT LES SONGES night and dreams

A poetic adventure for children and adults!

Night comes and the city dreams. Softly, things change, in appearance, in shape...
The blue urban universe, composed of a serie of cyanotypes, is articulated with a text, born during the lockdown, when wild animals reinvested the cities.

- A way of re-enchanting the city at night and imagining other coexistences with the living.

CÔTE À CÔTE side by side

A magnificent picture book about single parenthood which exudes a lot of love, poetry and fantasy!

A mother and her little girl live together in an apartment in the middle of a city under construction. When the mother has to stay in bed, the roles are reversed and it is the little girl who takes care of everything!

- With tenderness and poetry, this album tells the story of a child's desire for autonomy who, under the discreet and caring gaze of her mother, learns to have confidence in herself.

LA NUIT TOMBE, MAMAN RÊVE night falls, mummy dreams

A poetic picture book that deals with the daily life of single mothers with tenderness and accuracy.

It's night time. Snuggled up in bed, a little boy imagines what his mum is doing while he sleeps. Is she carrying on with the day's chores? Or does she take a little break just for herself?

- A picture book that subtly evokes the difficulties encountered by mothers who raise their children alone, but also their dreams and their desires.
- How, when you are a single mother, can you continue to be a free, emancipated, happy woman?

PIERRE PAPIER CISEAUX

rock paper scissors

An ode to children's limitless imagination!

While the city bustles outside, a little girl builds enchanting worlds made of pieces of paper. From paper cutouts to papier-mâché, she wanders in fanciful landscapes where dreams and reality merge. In the folds and folds of the packets of paper, we slide with her from her room to the snow-capped mountains, from the seabed to the burnt fields, from the cave to the clouds.

LE CHANT DE L'ARBRE the song of the tree

An ecological and poetic fable.

It's winter. In the city, a tree is saddened by having lost its colors.
But one day, a mysterious colored object comes to make it smile again.
Should it be wary of it?

- Luna Granada mixes in this album engraving on erasers, cut-out papers and stencils. The tree expresses itself through its bark, which is metamorphosed over the pages.

LE MARCHAND DE SOMMEIL the slumlord

An urban, social and poetic fable!

Line, a little girl from the city, sees her neighborhood transforming. Around her, the windows of the buildings are bricked up one after another.

The residents suspect "the slumlord". But who is this mysterious character?

- In this children's album, Luna Granada addresses the theme of unsanitary housing, making the story oscillate between dream and reality.
